
Product Information

Date: March 14th, 2024

Carbon Removal Certificate Reference Price Index Information – New Composition of the CORCX Index and volume data

The semi-annual review of the Carbon Removal Certificate Reference Price Index has now been completed. The new composition will be effective as of March 1st, 2024 and will be used when the CORCX Reference price index are calculated and distributed beginning of April 2024.

Method	Weight
CORCCHAR	100.00%

There will be no changes to the constituents.

CORCX weights

The only method that meets the minimum thresholds set out in the Methodology during the relevant period is CORCHAR. The new weights are based on the following total volumes for the last 6 months for all the methods:

Time Period	Volume
September 2023 to February 2024*	69,169

*Transactions where planned delivery is more than 182 days from the transaction date are not included.

The average price of the CORCX reference price index over the last 6 months for all the methods:

Time Period	Average index price
September 2023 to February 2024*	134.22

*Transactions where planned delivery is more than 182 days from the transaction date are not included.

Transactions in the last 6 months which have been disregarded in the normal reference price index value given the planned delivery date is more than 182 days from the transaction date has the following volume weighted indicative prices:

Method	Indicative Price
Biochar (CORCCHAR)	€109.28

For further information concerning this notice please contact Dataeurope@nasdaq.com.

If you want to subscribe to notices about the Carbon Removal Certificate Reference Price Index, please send an email to dataeurope@nasdaq.com

For more information about the different methods and construction of the reference price index please visit: <https://www.nasdaq.com/solutions/carbon-removal-marketplace>