NEW RULEBOOK – NASDAQ HELSINKI RULEBOOK FOR ISSUERS OF ETN PRODUCTS
Dec 18, 2024

Nasdaq Helsinki Ltd has published a new rulebook for issuers of ETN products. An ETN is an exchange listed debt instrument like security issued against a direct investment by the issuer in an underlying asset or underlying derivative contract. For example, the underlying can be a single share, a pair of shares or a crypto asset.

The Rulebook for Issuers of Exchange Traded Notes, which is part of Exchange's regulated market regulation and confirmed by the Ministry of Finance, will enter into force on Dec 18, 2024.

The rulebook and the related Guidance on the Requirements for Products Referencing Crypto Assets are available on the exchange's website:
